

Office of Minority Health Resource Center

Office of Minority Health Resource Center (OMHRC)

- The Office of Minority Health Resource Center (OMHRC) was established by the new Office of Minority Health in 1987 and most recently reauthorized in 2010.
- OMHRC's mission is to serve as a national health resource center on matters related to health information and health promotion, preventive health services, and education in the effective use of health care.

Office of Minority Health Resource Center (OMHRC)

Resources

- Capacity Building Division
- Communications
- Information Services
- Knowledge Center

Products

- Literature searches
- Data and Statistics
- Customized information & funding searches
- Campaigns, E-Newsletters
- Social Media, Website
- Technical Assistance
- Catalog

Capacity Building Division

- Strengthen capacity of nonprofits and public sector organizations that serve racial and ethnic minorities to adapt to change and thrive in today's environment
- Model partnerships across sectors, cities and states to bolster ability of communities to respond to health needs of minority populations
- Create tools to increase resource development strategies in ethnic/racial populations across the United States
- Support initiative to work with institutions of higher education including minority serving institutions

Capacity Building Division

People Skills &
Development Areas

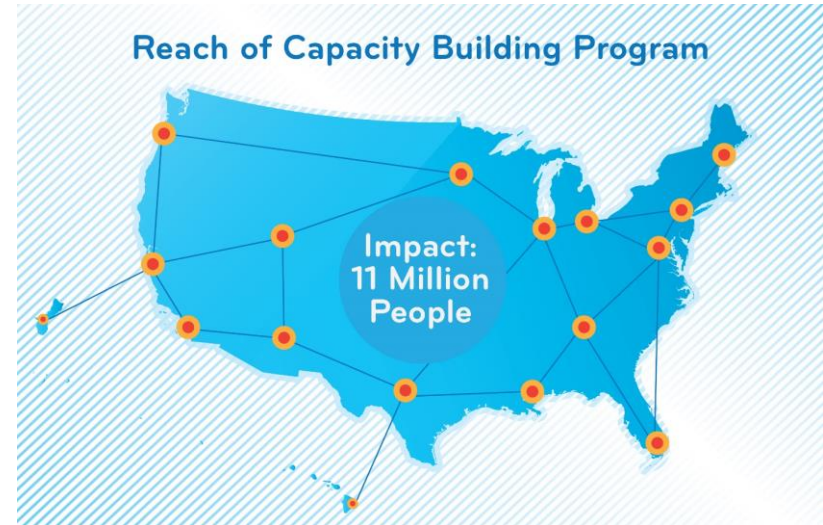

Agency Policies &
Operational Activities

Programs, Products,
& Services

- In these areas, we assist the agency build the expertise of staff, board and managers.
- Address policies of the agency and their interactions with constituency, focusing on legal requirements and related stipulations.
- Address programmatic outcomes & returns on the investment.

Capacity Building Division

- Originally created to support HIV/AIDS needs in communities of color
- Communities Served:
 - Pacific Project
 - African Immigrant Project
 - American Indian/Alaska Native Initiatives
 - Latino Initiatives

Reach includes remote areas (e.g., Pacific Islands) and under-resourced and under-funded minority communities (e.g., African immigrants, Pacific Islanders)

Capacity Building Division

Services

- Collect information on minority health issues
- Develop minority health databases Develop publications, newsletters, and literature
- Provide health information via social media
- Provide updated health statistics
- Customized funding searches
- Provide funding resources and development
- Provide Technical Assistance and training to minority health organizations and agencies

Thank You

Elton Naswood
Senior Program Analyst
Capacity Building Division

Office of Minority Health Resource Center

1-800-444-6472

www.minorityhealth.hhs.gov